

My dear Seraphina.

95.003

I am sending this scrap in Mother Sabina's letter. You know why. I was much pleased to get your interesting and welcome letter.
I had a letter from your Knight and my St Anthony. He enclosed a check as usual. He is giving more primarily all the time. And although I have no objections to checks yet, I would be very sorry, if John, he thought that I looked for a check every time he wrote.
You see, I am a rich. therefore "spending" When I like people it is for themselves not for their money or anything else. I spent his Birth Day completely. but had a Mass said for him some days after. May God ever follow him everywhere. If my few prayers are of any use he has them galore.

How are you? How is the indigestion? How is the weather now? Take life as it comes and make the best of it. Trials are generally of short duration.
God bless and strengthen in all the up and down of life. I will embrace spirit without his beloved. H. Kelley.
You must write and console him. Or perhaps it is the other you are. And he is gone even for a time. You are just a wee bit jealous. You see I never can talk nonsense.

Good night. God love you Your fond sister.

Mother Terapahina

Thanking for the usual monthly cheque from Ambrose.
