He said to the one who had invited him: "When ever you give a lunch or dinner, do not invite your friends or brothers or relatives or wealthy neighbors. They might invite you in return and thus repay you. No, when you have a reception, invite beggers and the crippled, the lame and the blind. You should be pleased that they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid in the resurrection of the just."

"Holy does not mean standing pale and bloodless in a stained glass window with a lily in your hand. It does not mean being aloof, withdrawn, and afraid to become contaminated by the world. Holiness, whether said of Francis of Assisi, Joan of Arc, John XXIII, or Albert Schweitzer, is always the same. It means being like God, a tremendous, passionate lover, committed to the problems of flesh and blood people in the real world. Christians are called to be a love people."

Beginning Your Marriage, Rev. John L. Thomas, S.J.
