Dear Mr. Rosner:

The portrait of Star of India arrived today, and it is difficult for me to find words to express adequately our sincere appreciation; the painting is simply superb. Our president, Mr. C. C. Woodworth, was here when the package was opened, and he has asked me to pass on to you his warmest gratitude for the masterful way in which you brought to life this grand old ship.

Our delight in having this outstanding picture, ^{has} dampened, of course, by the news of your illness, and we are all hoping for a complete recovery -- men with your talent are all too few, and could ill be lost!

In compliance with your request the check for $251.53, covering your commission ~~fee~~ and the expense of postage, has been made out to Jacqueline Rosner. We would appreciate receiving from either of you some brief biographical data about yourself, for use on the exhibit caption, etc. And let us know how you are getting along; although we have never met except by mail, we like to look upon you as one of the afterguard of Star of India.

Sincerely,

Jerry Man Ullman
