Dear Jerry:

Thank you for your suggestions of AASLH Award nominees: I have passed them both on to the appropriate local historical society from which the nomination should come. Just returned from a Dedication of a CHS Plaque on the Firehouse at 1088 Green Street and had a nice visit with Mr. Verbaarg. I do think he deserves all the Awards that are going.

Would like to be able to provide "early photos covering San Diego Bay" for your project of a pictorial history and wonder if you have good photos of the Coronado Hotel coming out your ears. We have two excellent 1905 photos of the Hotel by W. E. Worden (more Bay than land) to suggest, and a Britton & Rey Geological Map (in color) prepared for the 11th Report of the State Mineralogist Wm. Ireland, Jr. by H. W. Fairbanks, B.S., which may be of interest to you (it is of Portions of San Diego, Orange and San Bernardino Counties). If either of these sound promising, I'll be glad to send them to you for consideration, or hold them here till you are in San Francisco sometime to take a look.

Sincerely,

Irene Simpson
