Dear Mr. MacMullen:

PADDLE-WHEEL DAYS IN CALIFORNIA SHIPS OF THE REDWOOD COAST

Thank you for your letter of August 14th. Both of your books are in print and perhaps "not easy to find" only because bookstores, these days, do not keep as many titles on their shelves as authors and book publishers would like them to. And sometimes customers do not ask the bookstore to order books for them; the books are quickly obtained, of course, if they do. Your books continue to sell and we do plan to keep them in stock.

With good wishes,

Sincerely,

Dorothy O. Riedel
