I Declare the above Account to be true.

Signed W J Storey Master.

NOTE 1.—This List, with the exception of the No. of the List and of the first two columns, is to be truly filled up and Signed by the Master of every Vessel, whether British or Colonial, of whatever Tonnage, and to be delivered by him to the Shipping Master within forty-eight hours after the Ship's arrival at her final Port of destination in the United Kingdom, or upon the discharge of the Crew, whichever first happens, under a penalty not exceeding £5.

2.—The Name of the Master, with his age, place of birth, &c., must be entered in the list of the Crew, and also the Number of his Fund Register Ticket (if any), in order that his contribution may be entered opposite his name.

3.—If any one of the Crew enters Her Majesty's Service, the Name of the Queen's Ship into which he enters must be stated under the head of "Cause of Leaving the Ship."

4.—The columns headed "Ability" and "Conduct" are to be filled up with the following letters, V. G. for (very good); G. for (good); M. for (middling); I. for (indifferent). If the Master declines to report as to any Seaman, "Yes" should be inserted opposite his name, in the appropriate column. In the column headed "Remarks" may be inserted any special qualifications or disqualifications, e. g. "helm," V. G.; "cleanliness," G.; "sobriety," I. &c. &c. Any person who makes, or procures to be made, or assists in making, any false Certificate or Report of the Service, Qualification, Conduct, or Character of any Seaman, knowing the same to be false, may either be prosecuted as for a Misdemeanour, or be summarily punished before a Magistrate, by a penalty not exceeding £100, or by Imprisonment with or without hard labour for six months.

5.—Particulars of the Monies due to each Deceased Seaman, and of his Clothes and Effects, and of Deductions, if any, are to accompany this Return in a separate Account, in a form (KK) which will be furnished by the Shipping Master. If any Master fails to give a true account of these particulars, he will be liable to forfeit a sum not exceeding treble the value of the Money and Effects not accounted for, or to a Penalty not exceeding £50.

* The Shipping Master should obtain from the Master of the Ship the Certificate (Mates, RV 2, or E 2) belonging to any Seaman who has died or deserted, and forward the same to the Registrar-General with this Return. Should the Master have died his Certificate should also be obtained and forwarded in like manner.
