

MEETING OF JANUARY 25, 1926.

A meeting of the Aquarium Committee of the Zoological Society of San Diego was called to order at the office of Dr. Harry Wegeforth at 5 p.m., the following being present: Chairman A.T. Mercier, President Harry M. Wegeforth, Director W.C. Crandall and Secretary G.F. Mac Mullen.

The proposition of acquiring an old sailing vessel for the purpose of converting it into a museum and small aquarium on the waterfront was discussed at some length.

SITE

Director Crandall spoke of the proposed battery site at the foot of Market street. He also spoke of some of the details of upkeep of the proposed aquarium.

Chairman Mercier mentioned the possibility of obtaining aid from friends in San Francisco on the project.

FUNDS

President Wegeforth mentioned the problem of raising funds, and also the organization of the proposed aquarium.

PRELIMINARY STEPS

The secretary gave an outline of the plan as carried out on the east coast in the cases of the ships Charles W. Morgan and Benj. F. Packard. He was instructed to communicate with Col. E.H.R. Green, who re-fitted the Morgan, and also with the Dollar Steamship Company, the Alaska Packers' Association, and Hind, Rolph & Company, and to report progress at the next meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 5:40.
