Dear Jerry,

Herewith some dope on anchors as per your request relayed by Matilda.

These you can keep.

Let me know if you want me to send the book down, too.

WANDIA voyage was great. Villiers is a capital shipmaster, Ken Reynard kept the bark from flying apart (as Jack Dickerhoff remarked on seeing a photo of her: "It looks to me as if she was just thrown together. .") and navigated us there.

As the old sea chant goes
" 'cause when you sail in a Har-isch ship, it's a liberal edun-cayush-un . . ."

Best,

Karl
