ON MONTEREY'S UNIQUE "PATH OF HISTORY"

PORTRAYING THE SAILING SHIP ERA - THE FISHING AND WHALING DAYS IN MONTEREY - AND THE LOCAL NAVAL HISTORY (1846) WHICH WAS SO VERY IMPORTANT TO THE NATION AND TO CALIFORNIA, PLUS A GROWING COLLECTION OF NAVY ARTIFACTS.

The Maritime Museum was opened on 19 January 1971 with a large private collection of maritime artifacts and relics accumulated by the late Allen Knight of Carmel. His devotion to ships and the sea was lifelong, after going to sea as a young deck-hand in the sailing ship "FALLS OF CLYDE", now restored and moored at Honolua.
