Dear Jerry:

The Book Club of California Keepsake Series for this year (1967) is entitled "The Homes of the California Authors." The authors of this series include Dr. James Hart, Oscar Lewis, Franklin Walker, W. W. Robinson, etc.

For the twelfth and last Keepsake, we would like, if possible, to have an article on George Derby and his San Diego house, which, I believe, still stands in Old Town.

We would be very pleased and honored if you would write this article of around 300 words. We would also like a photograph, the expense of which is to be borne by the Book Club. In order that we may get this series to the printer, we would need the article by June 1st.

Jerry, we have had no refusals so far on this series, so please do not fail to accept!

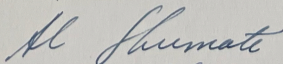

With very best personal greetings,

Sincerely,

Editor
Keepsake Series for 1967.
