

COAST SEAMEN'S JOURNAL
Steam-schooners

Fig 1-6A

- 10-26-98. (October 26, 1898)
Steam-schooner NAVARRO, left Newport, Oregon on the 23rd (October) for San Francisco, struck a bar at Newport and was slightly damaged.
- 11-23-98. (November 23, 1898.)
Steam-schooner ALBION has gone up for lay-up in Oakland Creek, SF, waiting for new boilers. Inspectors cut steam-pressure to 68 lbs.,
not enough to go up the coast.
- 12-28-98.
Steam-schooner PASADENA, tied up at Eureka with damaged machinery.
Condenser tubes sent to SF to be re-tinned.
- 1-4-99.
Steam-schooner LAKME caught fire at Astoria and was beached.
- 1-11-99.
Steam-schooner WEBOTT, sailed from Newport, Oregon, on the 5th (Jan.)
and returned with bunkers afire. Flooded ship, little damage.
Steam-schooner PROTECTION, foundered off the mouth of the Columbia River on the 1st, loaded with 360 tons of coal from Seattle for SF. (San Francisco.) Crew, except 2nd Engineer, picked up by British bark COLGATE and landed at Astoria on the 4th.
- 1-18-99
Steam-schooner JEWEL, wrecked near Caspar, California on the 13th (Jan)
Went on the rocks in a heavy gale.
- 1-25-99.
All steam-schooners running between SF and Eureka will carry mail due to frequent washouts on the overland routes.
Steam-schooner NOYO went ashore on Duxbury Reef outside of SF on the 17th.
Towed off and beached on Mission flats, badly damaged.
- 2-1-99.
Captain Thompson of the steam-schooner COQUILLE RIVER provisioned schooner NETTIE SUNDBERG. NETTIE SUNDBERG 36 days out of SF; crew living on hard-tack and water.
- 2-15-99
Steam-schooner HOMER damaged in collision with Alaskan steamer AL-KI.
Backed into it at Seattle dock. Captain suspended. HOMER damaged $2500, ALKI $500.
- 2-22-99
New Steam-schooner LUELLA, made trial run at SF on the 15th. Built at SF by A N Beadle & Co.
- 3-1-99.
Whaling steamer NEWPORT to become steam-schooner for coastwise trade.
- 3-22-99.
A steam-schooner, to be the largest on the coast, being built in Puget Sound for J S Kimball Co., of SF. Will carry 1500 tons and accommodate 100 passengers. Speed 12 knots.
- 4-5-99.
Steam-schooner CHILKAT capsized on Humboldt Bar, Eureka on 10 drowned.

