GALLILEE A Yachting Party.

Captain M. Turner, a well-known ship-builder of Benicia, recently extended to his friends an invitation on board his brig Gallilee. The guests had a delightful cruise for a week, visiting many points of interest. As fine entertainers Captain and Mrs. Turner cannot be challenged.

The commander-in-chief, Captain M. Paulson, did all in his power to make the trip a success, which was achieved. On stopping at Benicia Captain and Mrs. H. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. C. Chapman entertained the party royally. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman served a most delicious table d'hôte. Captain Hayes proposed a toast that made the champagne glasses ring to re-echo the wish that the Gallilee would make another trip as successful as her last, which was the fastest on record between here and Tahiti.

On returning to the city the party were escorted to the new revenue-cutter Parpate, lately built by Captain Turner, and after inspecting the "tidy" little cutter, wished her bon voyage ~~and~~ ^{on} her maiden trip.
