

only to the school children of the vicinity, but to the resident and tourist public as well. For that reason we would like to know, at as early a date as possible, the following facts: What ships are obtainable? What is their condition? What are the general arrangements of their interiors? At what figure would you be willing to dispose of one, understanding that it would be used purely for educational purposes?

Thanking you for an early reply, I am

Very truly yours,

Gerald F. Mac Mullen,
Secretary, Aquarium Committee.

