

This Indenture
doth put him self Apprentice to William

Witnesseth That William Klitting age 15 years of 102 Care St. Greenhouse Boston doth put him self Apprentice to William Smith of P^o B. Wm. Lane Painmaker

to learn his Art and with ^{him} after the manner of an Apprentice in such Trade or Business to serve from the first day of May 1822

[illegible]

Master Both Covenants and agree, to learn the above
William Mullins

said Apprentice in the Act of a Spilmaker which he weth by the best means that he can shall teach an

He weeth by the Ben means that he can shall teach and instruct a cause to be taught and instructed: For every man that Ben Apprentice - Five Shilling per week for the first year - Six Shilling per week for the second year - Seven Shilling per week for the third year - Eight Shilling per week for the fourth year - Nine Shilling per week for the fifth year - ten Shilling per week for the sixth year - Eleven Shilling per week for the seventh year

AND for the true performance of all and every the said Covenants and Agreements either of the said Parties herewith or self unto the other by these Presents In Testimony whereof the Parties above named to this Indenture interchangably have put their Hands and Seals the first day of May 1844

Ireland

Signed - Sealed And Delivered in the presence of William Smith.

William Mullins
William Smith
Wm. Mullins.

N.B. The Indentures Covenant Article or Contract must bear date the day it is accepted and where Agency or other party is given or contracted for with the Clerk or Apprentice must be inserted in Words of Leitch, whereas the Indenture will be and the Master or Mistress for his Fifty Pounds and another Penalty and the Apprentice to be added to Article 4. (added to Article 4. 1794)