Dear Mr. MacMullen:

In 1954 you indicated interest in Oliver P. Calloway. Having recently completed some indexing for my personal files, I note the obituary of O. P. Calloway in the San Jose Pioneer [newspaper], April 17, 1880, page 2, column 2. Here Calloway is mentioned as having lived in Sonora, Kern County, on the Colorado River, in San Francisco, and as having died in San Diego. Should you wish to see this reference the next time you visit San Francisco, please let me know a day in advance and also bring this card in with you.

Sincerely yours,

James de T. Babajian
