BY AIR MAIL

Dear Sir,

"EUTERPE" - O.N.47617

With reference to your letter dated 16th June, 1960, the following are the details available:-

Voyage of 1864-66. Various routine entries were entered in the documents between 20.6.1865 and 11.7.1865 at Calcutta and 6.10.1865 at Colombo. There is no reference to San Francisco in either the log or Agreement between these dates or at any other time.

Voyage of 1872-74. Entries show that the "EUTERPE" was at Newcastle, N.S.W. on 1.7.1873, San Francisco 10.10.73 where the Articles were deposited 25.9.1873, and Antwerp 2.4.1874.

Voyage of 1882-84. The vessel was at Newcastle, N.S.W. on 24.4.1883. A certificate given by the Vice Consul at San Francisco on 7.8.1883 states that the Articles were deposited there on that day and returned to the Master on 22.9.1883.

A search of the records has revealed that there were two other British vessels named "EUTERPE", Official Numbers 46884 and 82405. The former left Liverpool 13.6.1865 and returned to Greenock 2.2.1866, the only overseas port mentioned in the documents being Bahia, while the second vessel was not in existence until long after that period.

Capt. Storry died on the 8th August, 1866 when the ship was in lat. 8.30 N, 90.29 E. The cause of death was described by the 1st Mate as "remittant fever".

I enclose receipt No.L.84302 for 5 dollars and have to request that you will forward a further fee of 6/5d to cover this later search.

Yours faithfully,

for REGISTRAR
