Dear Sir,

Your letter of the 24th ulto to hand, in response to your appeal we send herewith a photograph of the Figure Head of The "Duke of Wellington" which was built in 1852, entirely of wood, 6071 tons, 25 Guns.

The Figurehead is preserved in our Showroom along with other famous relics, including the Stern Figures of H.M.S. "Temeraire".

These old Wooden Walls of England are broken up by us and the timbers cut into sizes for Tudor Houses, Half Timbers, Beams, Doors, Floors and Furniture. Garden Furniture is a speciality of ours. The enclosed list may interest you.

Please return the photograph.

Yours faithfully,
