

Jerry MacMullen. References in Steamboat Bill, journal of the Steamship Historical Society of America. Issue numbers are whole numbers. Volume numbers also given. The first issue of Steamboat Bill, April 1940, was 11 mimeographed pages with cover photo glued on. Jay Allen, founder, was Editor for first 9 issues.

#14 August 1944 was last issue in the mimeograph form with glued on photos. Arthur C. Adams was Editor of issues 10-18. v.2

p.260 Misc. Notes: . . .

"G.F. MacMullen, Lieut. Comdr., USNR, SSHSA member, has completed a book on river steamboats of California, to be published by Stanford University Press, fall 1944. It covers the Sacramento, San Joaquin and Colorado Rivers, and also includes a chapter on San Francisco ferries."

#15 December 1944. (v.3). Publication begins in photo-offset. p.285 Book review of Paddle-Wheel Days in California. * (*= xerox attached)

#16 April 1945. "A little Known Double-ENDER, 'Silver Gate.'" pp.296-298 * "Up Bar ! Down Bar !," drawing, in Fantail section, p.309 *

#17 August 1945. West Coast section begins, with G.F. MacMullen as section editor. pp. 327-328 *

#18 December 1945. West Coast, pp. 353-354 *

#19 April 1946. West Coast, pp. 378-379 *
For the Blue Pencil, p. 383 *
Frank O. Braynard, Editor, issues 19-30.

#20 August 1946. West Coast, pp. ⁴⁰²~~403~~-404 * Miscellaneous References, pp. 405-406 * Book review of Ships of the Redwood Coast.

#21 December 1946, West Coast, pp. 427-428 *
"Public Convenience and Necessity," p. 420 *

#22 April 1947, West Coast, pp. 18-20 * (v.4)

#23 August 1947, West Coast, pp. 43-44 *

#24 December 1947, West Coast, pp. 61-62 * This was the last issue in which Jerry MacMullen was West Coast Section editor.

#25 March 1948 (v.5) p. 20. "Editor's Note: Pressure of other responsibilities has compelled Jerry MacMullen, your West Coast section editor since August 1945, to retire from the post he first established and carried on with so much enthusiasm and success. The new West Coast section editor is Robert W. Parkinson, Berkeley, California."

#33 March 1950. (v.7). "The Santa Fe Tug," pp. 9-10 *

#73 Spring 1960 (v. 17) "Orizaba"

#86 Summer 1963. "Steamships to San Diego," pp. 35-39 * Xerox of cover and title pages, 33-34 also attached. (v.20)

