ABSTRACT:

Collection was donated in 2022 by William Hlavin, a friend of Robert (Bob) Harrison. Bob Harrison left the materials with Hlavin several decades ago when he was experiencing financial difficulties and needed to store some materials. Bob Harrison passed away in 2014. Hlavin has had these materials in the basement of his business in Akron. He is beginning of the process of cleaning out his office for retirement and chose to contact Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens to donate these materials.

The collection includes archive materials related to Bob Harrison, Irene Seiberling Harrison and assorted Seiberling family members. A significant part of the archival materials pertain to Milton W. Harrison, personal and business correspondence. There is a significant amount of material pertaining to Milton Harrison's involvement with F.A. Seiberling's financial affairs in the 1930s and 1940s. In addition, there is business correspondence of Milton Harrison pertaining to his work with the railroad union discussions in the mid-1930s and other ventures.

There is also a small collection of materials related to the relationship between the Harrison family and Edgar Cayce. These includes readings done of various Harrison family members during the 1930s and 1940s.

In addition to the archives, two paintings by Gertrude Seiberling were donated and a painting of a young Bob Harrison by Jean Teslof. Assorted family photographs, books and small objects were also accessioned as part of the collection.
