Phillips in a rural area of north Georgia known as Milton County which many years later became northern metropolitan Atlanta. He was raised on a farm one of six children. He was married to the former Azilee Westbrook on August 27, 1899. This union was blessed with ten children, five boys and five girls. Elder Phillips grew up in Boiling Springs Church where he first answered the gospel call to preach in 1914. He was called to serve Big Creek P.B.C. in November 1915 shortly before his ordination, which occurred on January 29, 1916. He continued to serve this church until 1958. He was called to pastor Boiling Springs P.B.C. in 1916 and continued in service there until 1954. He pastored Union P.B.C. near Roswell, Georgia from 1917 through 1955 and Ebenezer P.B.C. near Dunwoody, Georgia from 1918 through 1955. He served for shorter periods Mars Hill P.B.C. and West Atlanta P.B.C. He was the founding pastor of Cross Roads P.B.C. near Woodstock, Georgia in 1925 and served as its pastor until 1929. Elder Phillips first served as moderator of the Little River Primitive Baptist Association of Churches in 1920. Elder Phillips was widely known, loved and respected by members of the churches he so ably served as well as the community at large. His and Sister Azilee's home was always open to fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. His often-repeated grace over a meal was: "Kind Father look on us in mercy. Forgive us of our wrongs. Give us thankful hearts for this food and all other blessings. We ask for Christ's sake. Amen." These beautiful words of thanksgiving reverberated through the hearts and minds of all his natural family and his church family for many years after his death at the good old age of eighty years on August 5, 1961, surviving his beloved bride by just a few months.
