

B O N D

Know All Men By These Presents, that, G.O. Torkelson and Fred Hesterman, (co-partners, doing business under the firm name of Torkelson & Hesterman) of Merrill, Wisconsin, as principals and _____ and _____ as sureties, of Merrill, Wisconsin, are held and firmly bound unto the Merrill Knitting Company (a corporation) of Merrill, Wisconsin, in the sum of Fifty Hundred Thirty four Dollars, good and lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said Merrill Knitting Company, its successors or assigns; for which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally firmly by these presents.

Sealed with our seals and dated this _____ day of April, 1913

The Condition of this obligation is such, that if the above bounden, Torkelson & Hesterman, their heirs, executors administrators or assigns, or any of them, shall well and truly perform the covenants, conditions and agreements contained in the contract hereto attached and made a part hereof, and which contract is a contract for the erection and construction of a certain building to be erected and constructed by the said Torkelson & Hesterman for the said Merrill Knitting Company and which contract bears date as of the _____ day of April, 1913, and is executed by the said Torkelson & Hesterman as parties of the _____ part and the said Merrill Knitting Company, as part of the second part, and which covenants and agreements on the part of the said Torkelson & Hesterman are to be kept and performed, at the time and in the manner specified in said contract, according to the true intent and meaning of the same, then the above obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
