Iver J. C. Solberg - Personal

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

YOU GET COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN CAM

71st Birthday Recognized
The Merrill Daily Herald
4 May 1933

Taken By Death

Retired Pioneer Business Man Dies In Western State

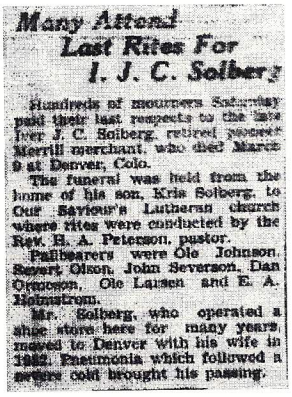
Reach Settlement In Tomahawk Dam Title Dispute Here

Commercial Club Meets Thursday

Carl Utech Dies This Afternoon

Late Bulletins

Obituary
The Merrill Daily Herald
10 March 1936



Many Attend Last Rites For I. J. C. Solberg

Hundreds of mourners Saturday paid their last respects to the late Iver J. C. Solberg, retired pioneer Merrill merchant, who died March 9 at Denver, Colo.

The funeral was held from the home of his son, Kris Solberg, to Our Saviour's Lutheran church where rites were conducted by the Rev. R. A. Peterson, pastor.

Pallbearers were Ole Johnson, Severt Olson, John Severson, Dan Orneson, Ole Larsen and E. A. Holmstrom.

Mr. Solberg, who operated a shoe store here for many years, moved to Denver with his wife in 1932. Pneumonia which followed a severe cold brought his passing.

Last Rites
The Merrill Daily Herald
16 March 1939