

Marie C. Chauvin

Marie C. Chauvin, 85, of 1608 E. 12th St., Merrill, died Thursday, March 1, 2007, at Good Samaritan Health Center, Merrill.

Marie was born March 5, 1921, in St. Paul, Minn., daughter of the late Samuel and Madeline (Mascotti) Ritchie. She was a 1938 graduate of Humboldt High School in St. Paul. Upon moving to Merrill, Marie met Eugene P. "Gene" Chauvin Jr. They were married on Oct. 5, 1940, in Merrill. He preceded her in death Aug. 16, 1982. Marie and her late husband were the owners and operators of the former Gene's Shoe Store in Merrill. Marie was a member of St. Francis Catholic Church, Merrill. She enjoyed quilting, sewing, reading, playing cards, having dinner with friends, watching Green Bay Packers games and being with her family.

Marie
Chauvin

Survivors include her son, Eugene P. "Phil" (Ellie) Chauvin III of Rolling Meadows, Ill.; two daughters, Jean M. (Bruce) English and Kerry (Rick) Hass, both of Merrill; her grandchildren, Eugene P. (Yvonne) Chauvin IV of Des Plaines, Ill., Corrina (Tait) Miller of Seattle, Theodore Chauvin of Pullman, Wash., Tony and Randi Hass, and Abby and Andi English, all of Merrill; her great-grandchildren, Jason Chauvin, Nicole Romanowski, and Teagan and Cooper Miller; and her sister, Beverly Hanson of Chesapeake, Va.

The funeral Mass will be celebrated at Noon Monday, March 5, 2007, at St. Francis Catholic Church, Merrill. The Rev. James Horath will officiate. Entombment will be in Merrill Memorial Park Mausoleum. Visitation for friends will be from 9:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. Monday at Taylor-Stine Funeral Home, Merrill.