

A MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE OF MERRILL

We take this opportunity upon the eve of our entry into the industrial life of Merrill, to greet you. We are here at your hearty invitation. By way of reciprocation we hope to prove good neighbors; we aim to be fair employers; it is our desire to become a part and parcel of the life of the community. Our establishment will strive to help in the future growth of Merrill.

1900 ————— 1936

The Albert H. Weinbrenner Company is a well established Company whose shoes are nationally known and as widely distributed. We are confident the people of Merrill whom we shall employ will help us maintain the reputation for quality which our shoes have always enjoyed.

It is our earnest desire to be considered now and henceforth an integral part of this community, to share in its successes and, if possible, to help prevent adversity, but, in all events, to share with you whatever the future may have in store for Merrill.
