

The new place of business, the former Merrill Elevator purchased by the Consumers' Co-op in 1940. This picture shows the main elevator and a part of the storage warehouse. Two additional buildings besides the Main Street store were included in the purchase. Storage room is provided in all buildings for approximately one thousand tons or twenty-five carloads of feeds, fertilizer and flour.