

Junior Chamber Of Commerce To Sponsor Event

Jubilee Promises To Attract Greatest Crowd Ever Assembled In Merrill
—Celebrate for Two Days

The Merrill Junior Chamber of Commerce at its meeting held last night at the Elks' Club voted unanimously to sponsor the mammoth two day celebration that will be held—barring unforeseen developments—Saturday and Sunday, December 5 and 6, to mark the opening of the new Weinrener shoe factory in this city.

The invitation to sponsor the festival and jubilee was extended by P. Amos Gruett, secretary of the Merrill Industrial Foundation, on behalf of that organization.

Although detailed plans remain to be worked out by the various committees appointed at the meeting last night, the general plans call for the holding of a two day celebration that will be a memorable one in the annals of the city's history.

Music, dancing, speeches, refreshments, prizes, concessions, etc., all staged in the new shoe factory building, promise to attract to the jubilee the greatest crowds ever to assemble in Merrill. Prominent public and industrial officials from the state and county, as well as from the city, will be in attendance.

These shoes are now on sale at $1 each and may be obtained from members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and members of the Merrill Industrial Foundation. This souvenir of the festival will admit the holder to all activities at the shoe factory on both afternoons and evenings of the festival.

Ralph Schewe, president, and Melvin Taylor, secretary of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, will act together with two members of the City Council and two members of the Industrial Foundation in supervising plans for the festival.

Committees Named

The following committees were appointed from the membership of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to arrange the details of the celebration: Music Committee—James Page, chairman; Frank O'Brien, Morris Warzink, Dr. Walter J. Bruederle; Souvenir Committee—Don Taylor, chairman; Elmer Oppert, Allen Webster, Andrew Koch; Concession Committee—Ernest Leidiger, chairman, Walter Roemer, Mitchell Bauman, Harry Pophal; Publicity Committee—J. A. Crowley, chairman, William Gennrich, Paul Block, Joe P. Chilsen; Program Committee—Walter Neumann, chairman; John Petzka, Thomas Christenson, George Schueppert.

At last night's meeting the Chamber adopted a constitution and voted to join the Wisconsin Junior Chamber of Commerce. Meetings will be held the first Wednesday of each month, the next regular meeting to be held December 2.

The membership elected to its board of directors: Leonard Schmitt, Allen Webster, James Page and Joe P. Chilsen.

Sponsor Noted Lecturer

The Chamber voted to sponsor the appearance in the city on December 9, of Jimmy (Chief) Just, noted lecturer on fire prevention. During the day he will address pupil audiences in the schools and in the evening will give a talk on fire prevention and a demonstration of extinguishing fire before a group of city and county officials and others interested in this work.

James Page, Morris Warzink, John Petzka and Don Taylor were named as a committee to make arrangements for the appearance in Merrill of Mr. Just.
