

Miss Mary Ammon Millinery

MARY AMMON,
—DEALER IN—
MILLINERY GOODS,
DRESS TRIMMINGS,
Worsted Goods, &c.
—ALSO,—
Buttrick's Patterns.
The above stock has been selected with the utmost care, and with a view to please, and I trust the Ladies of Jenny and vicinity will favor me with a fair share of their patronage, in which event I shall endeavor to do my best to gratify them. Prices exceedingly reasonable. 13 Rooms upstairs in Post-office Block, Jenny, Wis.

Lincoln County Advocate 3 November 1879

MARY AMMON,
—DEALER IN—
MILLINERY GOODS,
DRESS TRIMMINGS,
Worsted Goods, &c.
—ALSO,—
Buttrick's Patterns.
The above stock has been selected with the utmost care, and with a view to please, and I trust the Ladies of Jenny and vicinity will favor me with a fair share of their patronage, in which event I shall endeavor to do my best to gratify them. Prices exceedingly reasonable. 13 Rooms upstairs in Post-office Block, Jenny, Wis.

Lincoln County Advocate 5 April 1880

MARY AMMON,
—dealer in—
MILLINERY NOTIONS
—and—
Worsted Goods, Dress Trimmings and Buttrick's Patterns.
DRESS-MAKING
done in the highest style of the art.
In Auncott Building, Merrill, Wis.

Lincoln County Advocate 2 January 1882

WEST SIDE
Millinery Store.
HATS AND BONNETS
of Latest Designs, Ladies' and Misses Underwear, Flowers, Laces, Corsets, Gloves, and all kinds of FANCY GOODS.
Store on Main street, near Farnum & Collier's store.
MISS MARY AMMON.

Lincoln County Advocate 18 May 1885