He also mentions speaking with Marshall Townsend (Editor, UA Press), Eddie (Chalif), and Mario A. Ramos about the publishing status of the Spanish translation, and how there are still many problems and it is slow going.	1980	8	64, Manuscripts, typed – FG to Mexican Birds
Typewritten letter from Mario A. Ramos at the James Ford Bell Museum of Natural History at the University of Minnesota to RTP, sent 4/30/1979 and received 5/02/1979, about translating the Field Guide to Mexican Birds in Spanish. The issue lies in the standardization of the Spanish common names for Mexican birds, which could change from one geographic location to the next. Ramos offered four options for this standardization and asks RTP for advice and thoughts on the matter.	1980s?	8	64, Manuscripts, typed – FG to Mexican Birds
