

Journal of events &c —

January 1st 1862,

Weather calm. William Grover buried under the Masonic cover.

2^d A gale at the R. W.

3th Sunday, George Ames & wife at the L. House.

a gale at R. W. for 2 days past

6 Mon. Extracted a tooth for Mrs. J. Dargie's wife moderate weather. wind S. E. appearance of snow.

7th Tues. Cut bushes on farm

8^d Wed. went up visiting &c. but wood lot; ~~staying~~ looking staying for Capt. Bedman down.

9th. Visitors — Mr & Mrs Bobb &c — pleasant as summer, — snow in the morning

12 Sunday, received draft, — stormy —

13^d Monday — a gale at R. W. cold at night

14 Tuesday. Fair — drift ice in the bay — ~~Boatmen~~ down for supplies. Paris went to Camden

15 Wed. Snow storm. Avery's horse ran away —

16 Thurs. hauled down straw, wood &c —

P. M. laid out road

17. went to Sch. Dist. No 7. — turned out 3 scholars —

21 Fair — snow storm for 3 days past. Wind S. E.