

QUESTIONNAIRE.

- (1) Are cases of syphilis or any of its complications treated in your hospital?
- (2) Are Wassermann tests done in your hospital?
 - (a) If so, please give the number performed per year and the pathologist's name and address who makes these examinations.
- (3) Are there utilized in your hospital or through accessible laboratories, other laboratory tests than the Wassermann reaction as a means of diagnosing syphilis? If so, please underline those used.
 - (a) Dark field illumination for spirochaetes.
 - (b) Any special method of staining spirochaetes from chancres.
 - (c) Lumbar puncture with appropriate methods of examination.
- (4) Are there further remarks or suggestions?