

[Letter from Ed Whitney to his sister-in-law Olive Knight; Ed was married to Olive's sister Alice, who died in 1902]

Montello, Mass.

February 28-1923

Dear Olive and all,

Just a line to send the letter received some time since – I don't know whether you care to read these letters – You have never written me a word in regard to them – I like to get letters from them and to learn how the folks all and the Kiddies are getting along – How is Arno. The last I heard was from Florence and said that he was up around the house I hope he is much better by this time – Have you had any snow down there yet – I read that in parts of Maine they have had quite a flurry of the beautiful. I've had a cold and cough for the last two months – am some better now and hope I don't get another this winter. Remember me to all and

Love to you as ever

Ed
