

Jan Shandera

LOOKING GOLDEN: Erwin and Evelyn Heald, of Lincolnville, were surprised with a celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary recently. The party, which was organized by their children and grandchildren, began with guests hiding in the home while son Bob took them to out to eat. Party eats included bowls of candy bars, a memento of the couple's honeymoon in Maine when they ate a candy bar for dinner because they couldn't find an open restaurant.