

Wedding

Hardy-Prescott

Karen Leigh Hardy, of Lincolnville, and Steven Robert Prescott, of Northport, were married in a civil ceremony at the Youngtown Inn in Lincolnville on Jan. 1, 1993. The service was performed by William R. Batty Sr., a friend and coworker.

The bride is the daughter of Kenneth and Carole Thomas Hardy, of Lincolnville. She graduated from Camden-Rockport High School in 1977 and attended the University of Maine at Orono. She is assistant director of patient accounts at Penobscot Bay Medical Center.

The groom is the son of Frank and Lillian Prescott, of Northport. He is a 1983 graduate of Belfast Area High School and a 1987 graduate of Eastern Maine Technical College. He owns and operates Hi-Five Sports, a sporting-goods store on Main Street in Belfast.

The bride, whose father served as her witness, wore a fuchsia satin-and-lace dress. She wore baby's breath in her hair and carried a single white long-stemmed rose. She was attended by a flower girl, Brittany Prescott, 7, who wore a plum-colored satin dress with off-white lace sleeves and carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Joel J. Prescott served as witness for his brother.

Following the service, a reception was held at the home of Cathy and Calder Latham, in Lincolnville, which was adorned with Christmas and New Year's decorations by the Youngtown Inn for the occasion. The event was catered by the families of the bride and the groom.

Kristi Hardy assisted with the wedding book, and Kate Silsby-Hardy presided over the cake-cutting. The chocolate wedding cake with chocolate frosting was made by Mary Lou Batty.

Following a honeymoon at Norumbega, the couple is at home in Lincolnville.
