

to the State legislature, and also resolves expressive of the sentiment of the people in relation to the unpleasant situation of the country. The committee consisted of seven, viz.: Samuel A. Whitney, Phillip Ulmer, Abner Milliken, Hezekiah French, Daniel Decrow, William Kidder and Westbrook Knight. Both petition and the resolves reported were expressed in rather harsh language against the general government. The proceedings seemed to be non-partizan as shown by the names of those who signed the resolutions, viz.: Phillip Ulmer, Samuel A. Whitney, William Kidder, Hezekiah French, Daniel Decrow, Joseph Collemer, Ephraim Miller, David Brooks, Abner Milliken, Thomas Spring, Peleg Decrow, Samuel Bussey, Christopher Daly, Jr., Isaac Heal, Chesley Heal, John Heal, Jr., Westbrook Knight, Geo. W. Shepard, Seth Hunt, John Budd, David Rairden, Stephen Young, Reuben Higgins, Caleb Brooks, Wm. McFarland, Isaac Decrow, Elijah Wentworth, Jr., Noah Mason, Martin Brooks, Wm. Dickey, Aman Daley, Israel Decrow, John Calderwood, Wm. Stone, John Decrow, Jedediah Gilman, Wm. Moody, Enoch Knight, Jonas Knight, Gideon Young, Hushai Thomas, John Mahoney, Isaiah Dean, Silas Varney, Moses Young, Richmond Daggett, Hezekiah Batchelder, Benj. Smith, Joseph Pottle, Benj. Lamb, Solomon Brooks, John Wilson, Nathaniel Knight, Israel Miller, Chas. Thomas, Samuel Angier, John Studley, James Higgins, Nathaniel Rogers, Lowell Lang, Jona. Fletcher, Elijah Wentworth, Nathan Knight and Joseph Butterfield.