[Letter from Flora Pillsbury (1887-1921) to George Nichols (1889-1961)]

Camden, Maine

Dec. 8, 1913.

My dear Worthy Master Elect: -

You've beaten me I've only sold 4 tickets but I haven't been out of the house since I came home Saturday night.

Thank you ever so much for telling me about the dress. I should be glad to have it if I may. I expect to go down to Camden tomorrow to stay the rest of the week and don't you s'pose your Uncle would perhaps bring it down to the mill and Shirley could bring it home, or if he shouldn't want to I could go up after it; I'll ask Shirley to ask him anyway and he can't do more than say yes or no.

Thank you for offering to bring it up, and me too, but it was lucky I didn't wait till yesterday wasn't it, such a beautiful day, anyone needs a motor boat instead of a motor carriage now.

Sincerely yours,

F.E.P.
