[Letter from Flora Pillsbury (1887-1921) to George Nichols (1889-1961)]

April 30, 1915

Dear Brother: -

The girls say if it rains hard tonight they are not going up to Ethel's but they don't mind a little rain. Why don't you telephone soon after 7 as I shall leave about that time if we go, then you won't come down and maybe find me gone.

I expect we shall have company up home Sunday and Natter will bring us all down in the evening so think very likely we shall not be in time for church as these folks are coming up just for the day and won't be in any hurry about getting back to Rockland. Hadn't you better telephone then instead of waiting around and if we get down before 8 o'clock I'll come over street but if its later than that don't believe I will. I'm sorry you waited so long last Sunday evening and I was mean to stay at home.

I'd like to go up with the girls tonight but I hope it keeps on raining hard. Now isn't that sensible.

F.
