Jeremiah Young 1858 - 1928

Lived alone on ~~Fennell~~ ^{Franklin} road the greater part of his life, he had few near relatives at time of death and was cared for by Fred Hardy, who bought ~~lot~~ ^{lot} and small makes. Fred Hardy later ¹⁹⁵³ sold the back half of lot to Mrs. James H. Corwin for the burying ^{of} her brother Paul Jacobus, who wished to be buried in Linschville.

#8A.

Paul Jacobi Jr. Born Aug 18 1890 found dead Oct 7/1953

Born in New York City, son of Paul Jacobi and Augusta Lambrecht. He was Sgt. of the 26th Infantry Regular Army in the Philippines and along the Rio Grande in Texas in 1907 to 1920. He lived in Linschville a number of summers, spending most of his time in the woods by himself. He sometimes entertained the town people by playing on his bag pipes, something most of us had never heard before.

His sister Mrs. James H. Corwin 134 Magnolia Terrace Springfield Mass.
