

Teacher Of The Week

Third-grade teacher Janet Chapman finds herself with a different grade this year as the large group of 8-year-olds moves through the school. She has 15 students in her class, sharing the third-graders with Mrs. Johnsen. She grew up in Nanuet, N.Y., and attended college at Atlantic Union College in South Lancaster, Mass. Her previous experience includes 16 years of teaching, work in the admittance office at Pen Bay, director of a Headstart Program and principal/teacher in a private Christian school.

She and her husband Paul have lived in Lincolnville for 22 years. They have two teenage sons, Glen and Jeff, and a married daughter, Jennifer. She's the proud grandmother of Ryan, 2, and Benji, 1. Her hobbies are camping, hiking, backpacking, canoeing and seeing children learn.
