[Letter from Flora Pillsbury (1887-1921) to George Nichols (1889-1961)]

Dear Brother George: -

Now will you call me a story teller? Really its too bad it had to show when you hated so to have your picture taken with such a crowd, but I have helped out as much as I could

The Social up here at the Beach is to be next Tuesday night, can't you skip Lodge for once, and bring some more with you. Admission is 10¢, then there will be homemade candy, as well as ice-cream and cake on sale, and perhaps Leigh Richards will treat.

Sincerely,

F.E.P.
