

[Letter from Arno Knight to Olive Drinkwater]

Feb 13th 1880

Olive I will answer a question or two which I forgot in my last. About Cyrus I think probably he is quite as fond of you as of my Sister, perhaps more so. You don't understand about my folks not speaking of you. I have reason to believe they hold you in very high esteem in fact before I came here I have heard my Sisters, speak of you in flattering terms, and why they never speak of you is because I have never spoke of you in my letters to them And they don't know, (through me) that I correspond with you, or that I care to hear from you more than any one else in L.. Think I'll inquire of you when I write again and see what they say? What did you mean by saying some fellows were to smart on the flirtation question, any thing personal

(That time will come for you Olive)

Miss Olive Drinkwater
