

[Letter from Nellie Wescott to her brother Arno Knight; their mother has been living with Nellie and her second husband, William Wescott in Camden]

Rockport April 9th 1901.

Dear Brother

Mother wanted me to write and ask you if you would not send her some money as she needs some very much.

She has been quite sick with Grippe we all had it but Mr Wescott had a severe attack and Albert. but are better now. Albert & Gertrude enter school again this week. beginning of spring term. Hope you are well.

Write or come and see us

What a spell of weather this is, the travelling is terrible down here.

Write soon.

Your sister
