

Inquest.—A Coroner's inquest was held yesterday morning over the body of a man found dead somewhere on "Rocky Farm," in the south part of the town. We learn that he was a soldier, named William Dockerty, (so pronounced) and belonged to Company I of the U. S. Troops stationed at Fort Adams. We are informed that he was seen in our streets, after the storm cleared up on Monday night, in a state of intoxication, and it is presumed that he attempted to return to the Fort by land, but lost his way in the snow, and thus miserably perished.—Newport Rhode Islander of Wednesday.
