

FORT ADAMS.—We learn that the Secretary of War has ordered sixty thousand dollars, of an unexpended appropriation, made last year for Fortress Munroe, to be applied this year to the works at Fort Adams. This, with the balance of last years appropriation yet unexpended, making about one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, will allow the work at this post to be prosecuted with the vigor which its importance demands.