The U. S. Troops, at Port Adams, were reviewed by Cot. Bankhead on Saturday morning last. All present speak in strong terms of admiration as to the appearance and discipling of the troops.

To many of them he medically who of hard work, decleasing, in the own.

To a chared his abprecialism for the together with berritive of traver, good food one an affection for italy that he light embraced as a young in edit of student well. Their grates shred joy, nowever, was their sons, their families and their two grandclifferen. You young ones brought joy and fulfilment in their lives. It was a love that overflowed to Joe's in laws, to Carol and Roger's families and to the hest generalism.
