
THE NEWPORT MERCURY.

NEWPORT, ³
SATURDAY, July 14. 1838.

Adjournment of Congress.

Both Houses of Congress closed their Session at 12 o'clock on Monday last.—Messrs. Robbins of the Senate, and Cranston and Tillinghast of the House, from this State, arrived here on Wednesday morning, in the steam-boat from New-York.

In our preceeding columns will be found a journal of the proceedings of Congress, to the closing hour of the session.—Among the appropriations passed by Congress, we are pleased to notice, that of $100,000, for continuing the important work at Fort Adams, in this Harbor ;—and also the sum of $18,000 for completing the Breakwater at Church's Cove, in Little-Compton.
