

Accident.—An Irish laborer was severely injured yesterday at Fort Adams, by the fall of the scaffolding of one of the arches, which fell and nearly crushed him while at work under it. Another laborer who was in company, was slightly injured.