

FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

OUTDOOR HANGAR FLYING SESSION at Fairford, England, was engaged in by Gen. Curtis LeMay, commander of Strategic Air Command, (second from left), during an inspection of 306th Bomb Wing. The 306th, first SAC outfit to be equipped with Boeing B-47's and the initial jet bomber wing to receive an overseas assignment, will return to the United States early in September. Standing in front of one of the 45 Boeing-designed Stratojets of the 306th wing are, left to right, Col. Michael N. W. McCoy, wing commander; General LeMay; Maj. Gen. James C. Selser, commander of the Seventh Air Division, London; Brig. Gen. Henry K. Mooney, commander of the Sixth Air Division, MacDill AFB, Tampa, Fla.; and Col. Jerome Tarter, commander of the Royal Air Force Base at Fairford. BOEING AIRPLANE COMPANY PHOTO.
