

Gather all C-47-DC-3's & keep info. together. Priority

C-47 1944
Friday, June 9, 1944

Airview News

Page 4

Official Army Air Forces Photo.

TO CONQUER THE ENEMY—On D-Day hundreds of Douglas C-47s dropped loads of heavily armed paratroopers behind enemy lines. Scenes like this covered the coast of France. Hundreds more of these

C-47s will be needed to complete the invasion and defeat the enemy. We will send eight of them to the war fronts if we purchase our quota of bonds during the Fifth War Loan.

'I'm No Pin-up Boy,' Says

1000 Troops in 'Tulsa Attacks' Show

"Well done, Tulsa—Stay on that 200 items of war equipment in the service will be the Job to Finish the Job". ment will be used in the show, come seeing the equipment supplies provided for his we