

Donald Cameron BARWICK

November 9, 1924 - January 5, 2009

OBITUARY DONALD CAMERON BARWICK November 9, 1924 - January 5, 2009 In peace and with love, we say good-bye to an extraordinary man. Beloved husband of Gertrud Antoine Jurgenliemk, and loving father of Melanie, Suzanne, Aird and Blair Barwick. Fondly remembered father-in-law of Glenn Goucher (Suzanne), Peter Bishop (Melanie), and Heather Barwick (Blair); happy Papa to Alexa Barwick, Elise and Chloe Bishop, Cameron and Emma Goucher; much loved stepfather to Amely, Michael, and John Jurgenliemk. Grandpa Donald to Daniel, Christian, Alexander, Jessica, and Clara Rose Jurgenliemk. Brother of Joan Lawler of Toronto, and son/brother-in-law to the Valiquette family. Donald was a lifetime member of the Canadian Grenadier Guards and The Atwater Club, and Past President and honorary member of The Montreal Racket Club. He was very involved with the Montreal Aquarium in its day, and was a significant contributor to the Bermuda Turtle Project since its inception in the 1960s. Working with the late Dr. Archie Carr, his dear friend the late Dr. Clay Frick II, and researchers at the Bermuda Biological Society, Donald worked to repopulate Green Sea Turtles in the Bermudas. He had a love of the sea, photography, and cuisine. He had a long career in financial printing, working into his 80s. Funeral Service will take place at 1 p.m. on Friday, January 9, 2009 at the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul, 3415 Redpath Street (corner Sherbrooke St. West), Montreal. Visitation with the family will be held one hour before the service at the church. There will be a reception for friends and family to follow the burial, Montreal Racket Club, 396 Concord Street, Montreal. The Family would like to express their most sincere gratitude to the staff of St. Anne's Veterans Hospital for their loving care and devotion. ~ May he swim with his turtles to the open sea ~

No Events Scheduled At This Time