

reol turned out to give hearty welcome to still an other British bride coming t join her husband in the Rail way Town on Friday, whe Mrs. Freda Lepki complete to Norther reunited with her long journey from Swan sea, Wales, to Norther on the contarion to be reunited with F.O. J. J. Lepki, R.C.A.F., of Capreol. Mrs. Lepki, the for i mer Freda Neil, daughter Mrs. J. Neil and the late Mr. Neil, of Swansea, was married to F.O. Lepki in April of 1945, a month before her airmanhusband was posted back to Canada. It has taken 12 months for the young Welsh bride to get passage to the bride to get passage to the Dominion to her new home. She is pictured above, shortly after she disembarked from the liner Aquitania, along with some 1,000 war brides and their children at Halifax. F.O. and Mrs. Lepki will take up residence in Capreol for the time being.